MORE DAILY MOVEMENT

Research has shown that students are more physically active, but the amount of daily sitting has not reduced (THL 2024).

Long periods of inactivity impair learning and engagement

- Most of the sitting happens during the study day, and it has a negative impact on both learning and the study experience.

Take part in UniSport' free break exercise services:

Take a break! – break exercise sessions

- On campuses and via live stream

BreakPro app

- Reminds you to take breaks based on your schedule and needs
- Download it on your mobile or computer

Video library

- Break exercise at any time, in any place

TAKE A BREAK! 1 September–17 December 2026

- Take a Break!: A relaxing break exercise session that activates the body, boosts alertness and helps interrupt prolonged sitting during the work or study day.
- Shake a Break!: A more dance-inspired break exercise session that lifts your mood through movement and music.
- Mind a break!: A calming break session where you pause in the moment through mindfulness exercises and gentle movement in the middle of the work or study day.
