

Aalto-yliopisto

Notification of information security incident

Have you tried to limit any further damage?

no

yes, how?

Evaluation of the type of breached data (personal data, confidential information, other, not public information etc.) and the damage caused by the information security incident:

Have the data subjects been informed of the data breach (department, stakeholders etc.)?

no

yes, whom
and what has
been notified:

Data controller and manager of the information system (Owner):

Contact details for the department's information security officer (name, email, telephone number):

Information system's name:

Information system's IP address/addresses:

Information system's operating system(s)

Significant services included in the information system:

Information system's physical location (Address):

Information system's current status:

enabled

shut down / off

unclear / no information

If the information system has been shut down, are its core functions such as memory, processes, network connections, user data etc. safe and recoverable:

yes

no

don't know

Has the data been backed up by the unit using the information system:

yes

no

don't know