

DEED OF GIFT

Foundation for Aalto University Science and Technology (Aalto-yliopiston tekniikan tukisäätiö sr) has today received a donation of _____ euros to be used for advancement of scientific research into _____ technology. The donation has been paid on the account of the foundation.

(Place and date)

_____, _____ 202_____

Donator: _____

Contact person: _____

Address: _____

Telephone: _____

The names of the donating companies or institutions may be entered into Aalto University's register for background information regarding donations for university-related purposes. The information in this register is not shared with third parties.

(Please check the box if preferred) Our company or institution wishes to opt out from the above-mentioned register.

The account of the foundation:

Nordea Bank Finland plc

IBAN FI67 1309 3000 1125 57

BIC NDEAFIHH

Please note the following regarding the tax free nature of the grants issued by the Foundation:

- The donation is gratuitous. The donator can specify the field of technology for which the donation is intended but not the specific topic of the thesis.
- Tax-free grants may only be awarded if the recipient is not in a contractual employment relationship with the donator.
- The donator does not exercise the right to direct the grant recipient. The research conducted and the thesis writing are supervised by a professor at Aalto University.
- The grant recipient, during the grant period, shall not receive any compensation or remuneration from the donator.
- In case the grant is considered taxable, the tax penalties will incur both the donator as an employer and the grant recipient as an employee.

The Foundation expects the donator to comply with Aalto University's or a similar Code of Conduct for partners <https://www.aalto.fi/sites/g/files/flghsv161/files/2021-11/Aalto%20University%20Code%20of%20Conduct%20for%20partners.pdf>